Kaya Toast:
Popular Singapore
heritage breakfast

Kaya Toast has been introduced about 90 years ago and has since remained one of the most loved breakfast dishes of Singapore.

It is usually eaten with 2 half-boiled eggs and either a cup of coffee (kopi) or milk tea (teh).

King of Fruits

The durian is distinctive for its large and unique look. You either love it or hate it. Try it!

The Esplanade is affectionately known as the "durian", due to its architectural resemblance to the notorious fruit.
